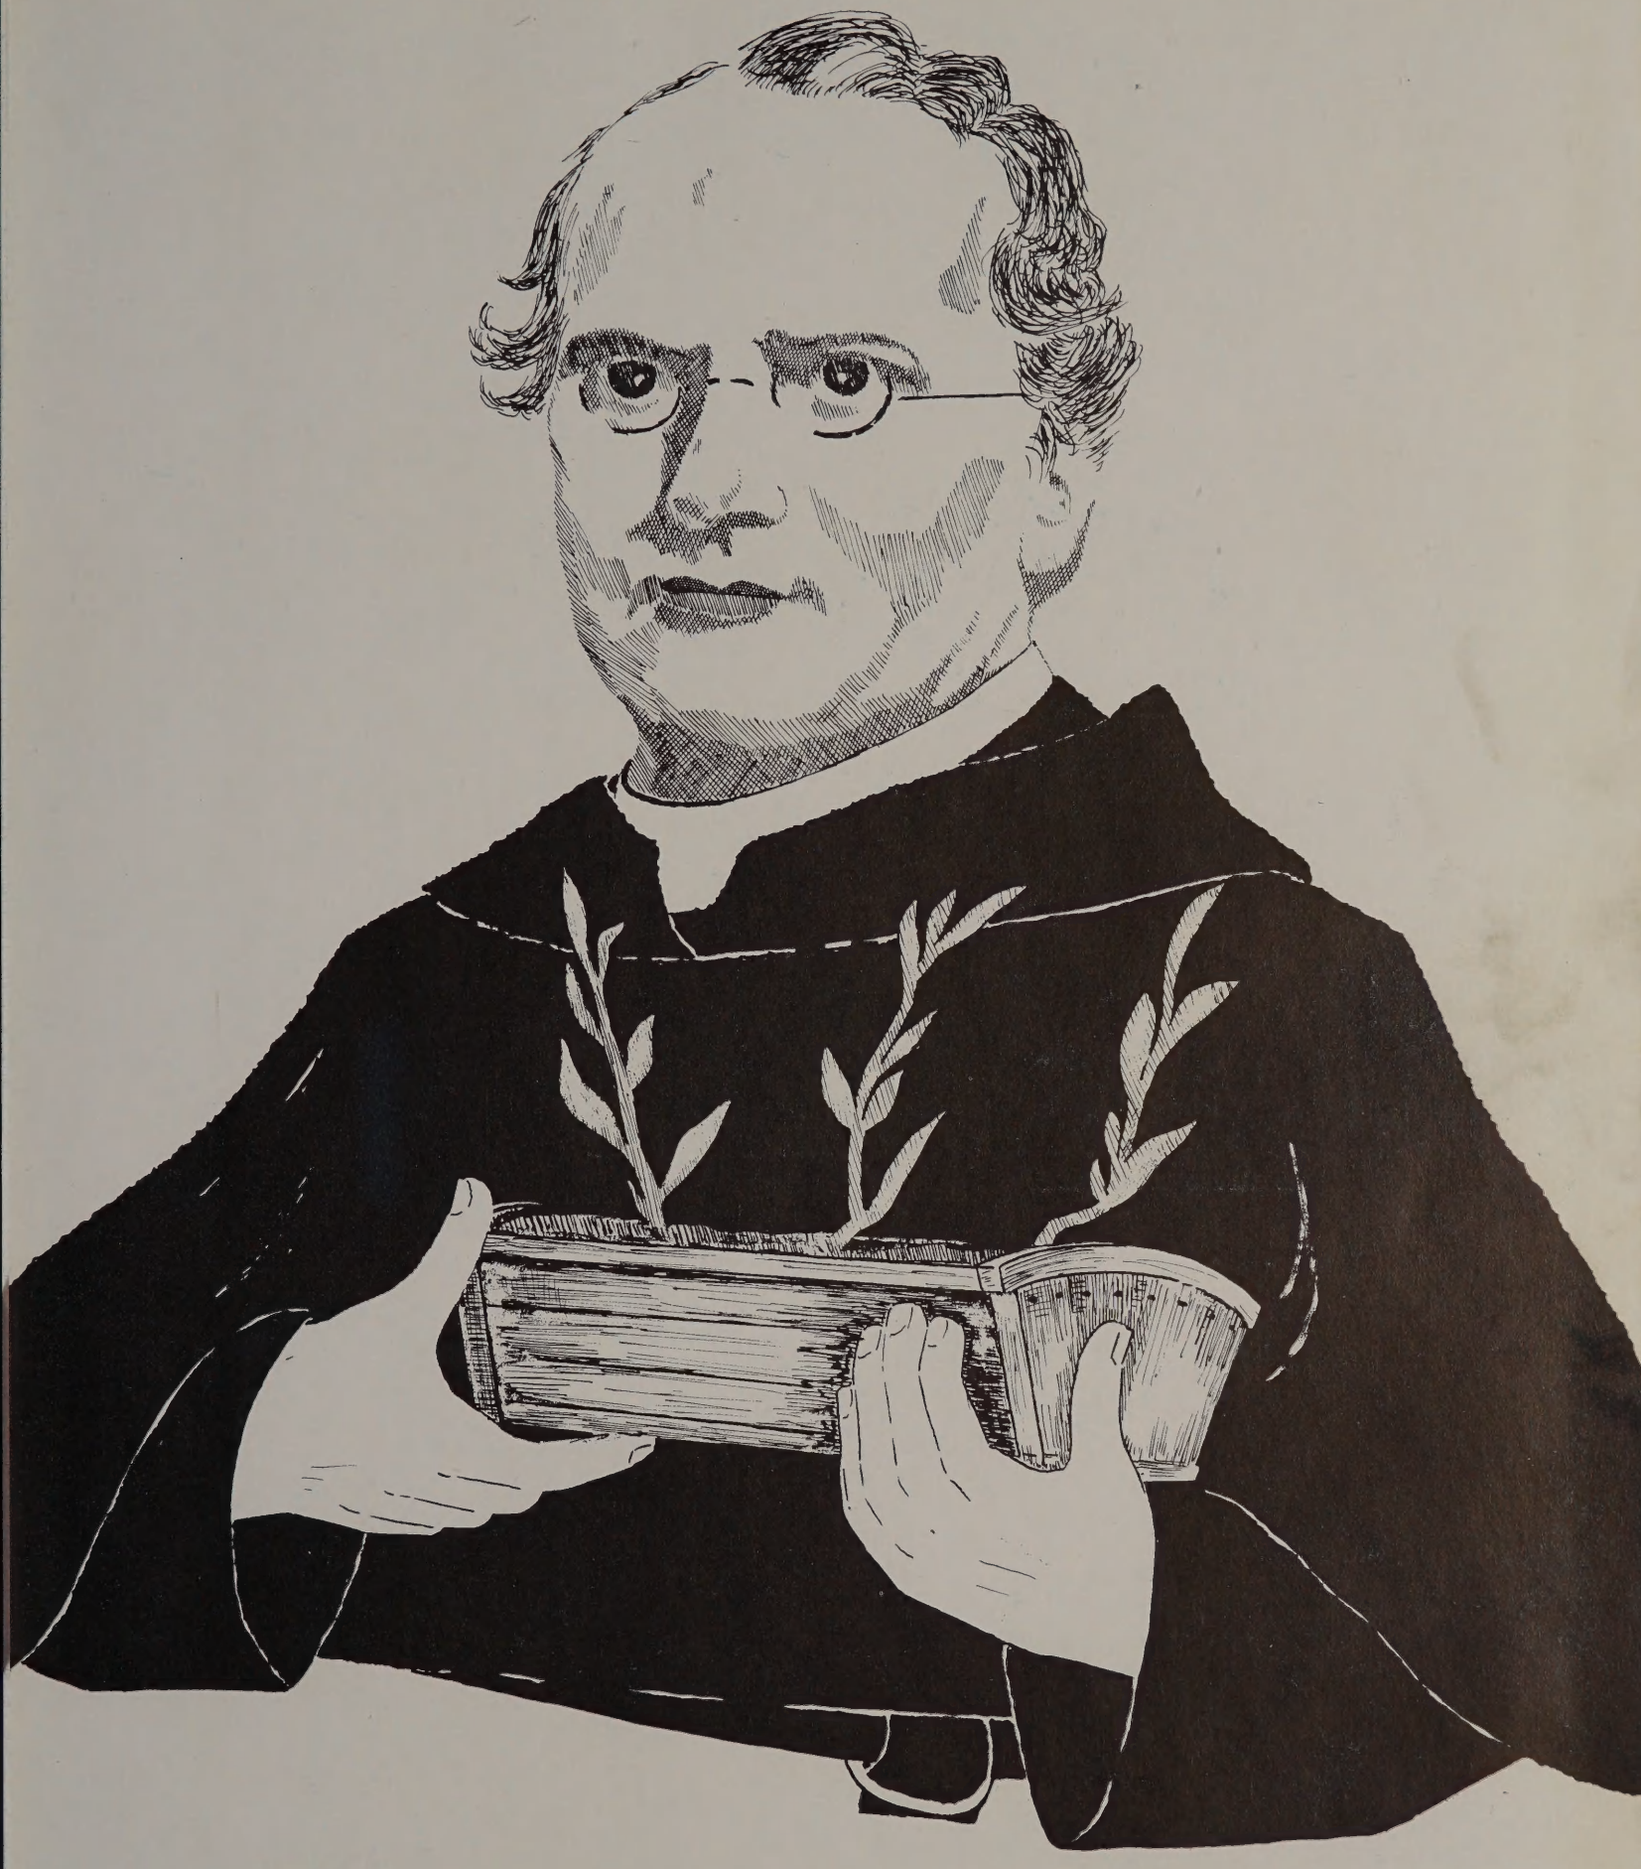
1961 1961

MONARCH



Father Gregor Mendel, O.S.A.

A REMEMBRANCE . . . A DEDICATION . . . A FAREWELL

FR. ALFRED BURKE, O.S.A.

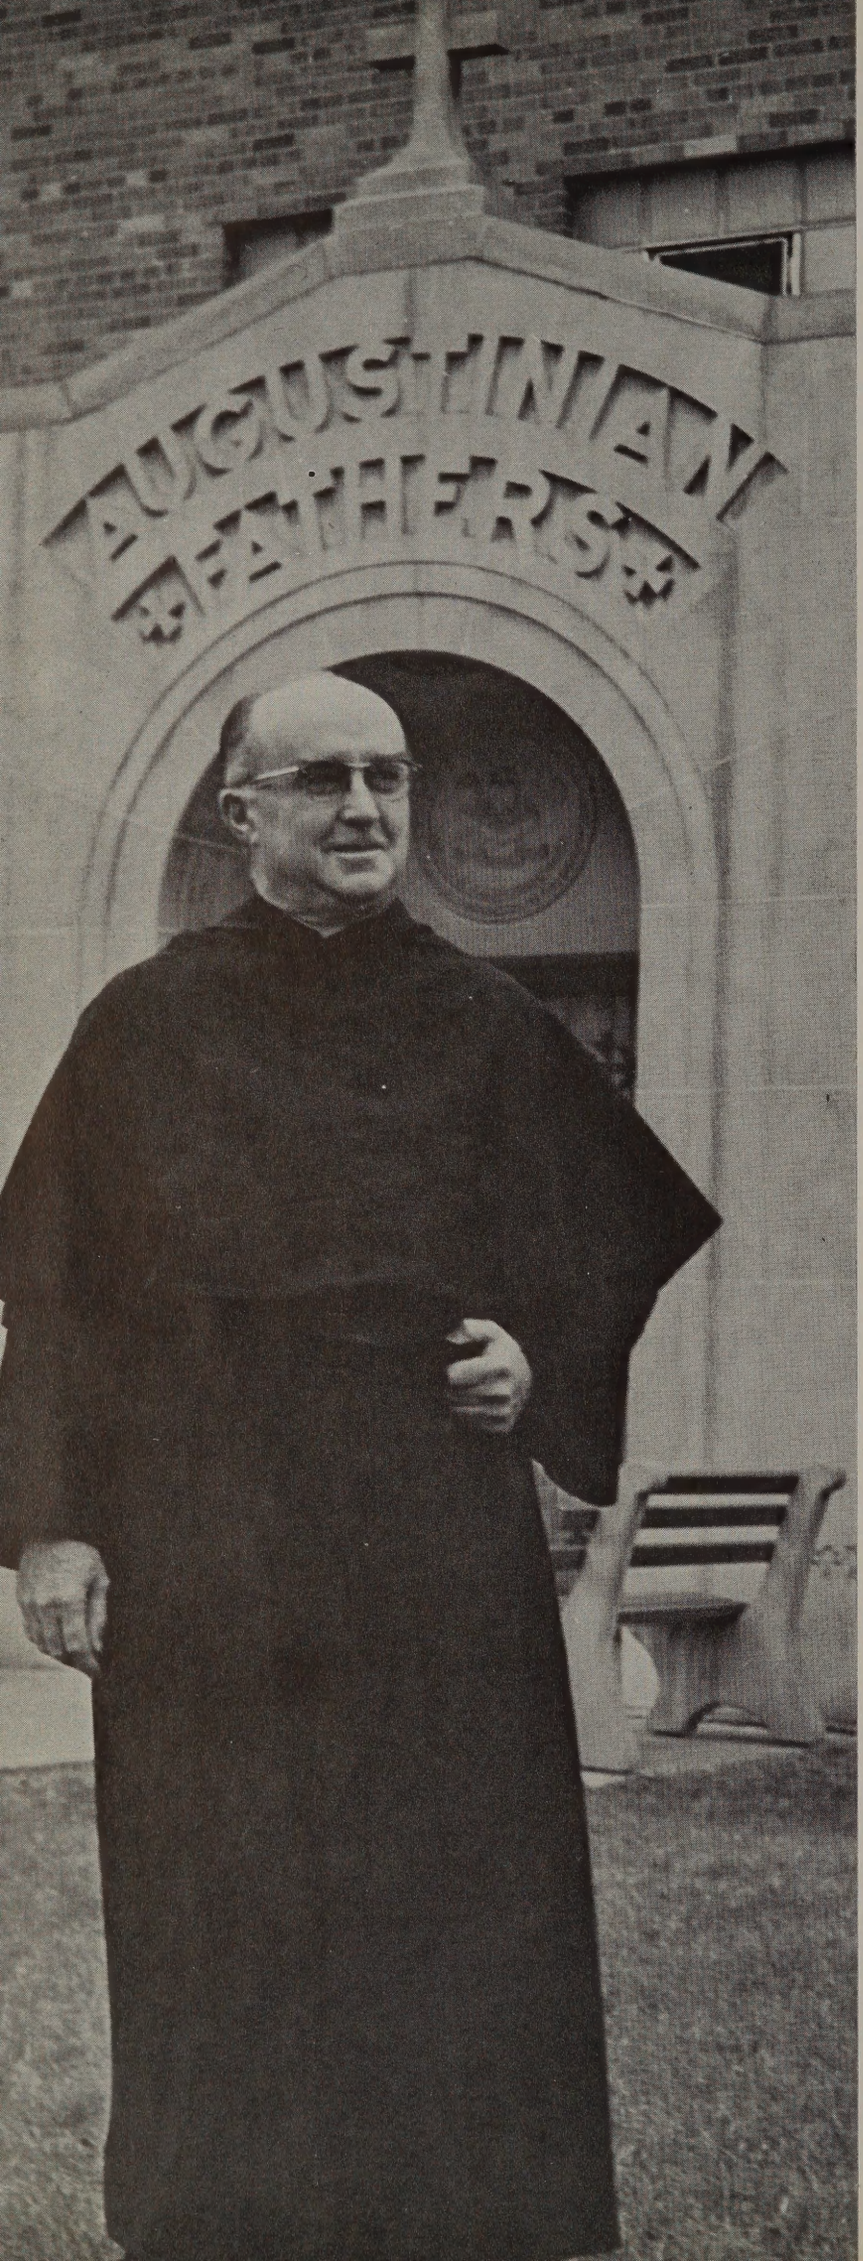
Like the present Senior Class, Fr. Alfred Burke has been at Mendel Catholic for four years. During that time he has played a vital role in the "Mendel scene," not only as Physics teacher, but mostly as both counselor and friend to all who knew him.

It is fitting that this year's Monarch should be dedicated to one who has exemplified in his life personality, temperament and activities—the ideal of the Men of Mendel. He likewise exemplifies the theme of the 1961 Monarch—Manliness, Comradeship, Holiness, and Service.

Long after Fr. Burke has left the Mendel scene he will be remembered fondly. He has served as Moderator of the Key Club, has been active in the Roseland Kiwanis organization, and has been the guiding light of many school activities.

With deep respect and gratitude, the Monarch staff speaks for the entire student body in wishing Fr. Burke a fond farewell as he leaves during the coming summer for the Augustinian Missions in Japan. The Men of Mendel unite in offering Fr. Burke their wishes and their prayers that God may fruitfully bless his endeavors in his new assignment in the foreign missions.

MENDEL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL



FR. JOHN L. SEARY, O.S.A., PROVINCIAL

To Fr. Seary, the first Rector of Mendel Catholic, is owed an unappreciable debt of gratitude. It was he who originated the Mendel Fight Song and the ideal of Manliness in his immortal "Men of Mendel" salute. It is fitting, therefore, that the theme of this year's Monarch should find its origin and inspiration in him — Manliness, Comradeship, Holiness and Service.

Mendel's Leaders

FR. FREDERICK J. WINN, O.S.A., PRIOR

It is only through the untiring efforts of a leader such as Fr. Winn that the full cooperation of all the priests on the Mendel faculty is made possible. The Father Prior of the Augustinian Monastery here at Mendel, Fr. Winn also serves as Assistant Rector, administrative advisor and instructor.

VERY REV. MARTIN J. O'NEILL, O.S.A.

Mendel's Rector

The theme of Fr. O'Neill's term of office at Mendel — "Oneness, Sanctity, Ambition" — was much in evidence during the past school year. His constant concern for unity, among the faculty members and students, was revealed in the many changes he has effected, for holiness in his making the spirituality of the student body part of his every day in being with them for the Holy Mass, and for achievement by not only stressing the field of studies, but also improving the facilities of the school itself so as to better serve the needs of all.

In Fr. O'Neill's two years at Mendel his abilities as a leader, an administrator, a priest-teacher and a friend have been most apparent. Akin to his own theme of "Oneness, Sanctity and Ambition" is that of this year's yearbook, also made possible through Fr. O'Neill's persistent endeavors, of Manliness, Comradeship, Holiness and Service.

FR. ROBERT J. VERSTYNEN, O.S.A.

Vice Rector of Studies and Supervision

To Fr. Verstynen falls the task of planning, arranging and scheduling the courses of all Mendel students. It is his perceptive mind and eager willingness that make every Mendel student not just prepared for college, but adequately fitted for any position in life.

Mendel's Administrators

FR. DANIEL J. HARTIGAN, O.S.A.

Vice Rector of Student Conduct

Through his system of tirelessly interviewing parents of students, Fr. Hartigan has striven to fulfill his difficult task of disciplining boys, while still caring completely and solely for their own welfare and proper progress to adulthood.

FR. JOHN C. McNABB, O.S.A.

Vice Rector of Guidance and Activities

The many and varied activities of a school the size of Mendel Catholic are the concern of Fr. McNabb. Serving as senior counsellor, director of student affairs and planner of student guidance, Fr. McNabb has tedious and time-consuming duties.

FR. EDWARD G. GRACE, O.S.A.

Procurator

Providing the materials necessary for the continued proper functioning of Mendel falls to the lot of Fr. Grace. From broken windows to leaking radiators to the purchasing of maintenance materials for both school and monastery — all are the obligation of Fr. Grace in his making Mendel physically a first-class high school.

New appointments to the faculty at Mendel were made during the Christmas vacation. Fr. R. Follman was changed to St. Rita High School, and Fathers Hayes and Nash were assigned to Mendel, Fr. Hayes for the first time, but Fr. Nash, one of the original nine Augustinian priests on the Mendel faculty in 1951, for a return after a two year assignment in parish work.

Coaches Doran and Novak and Mr. Magnavite listen to a "tall tale" of Mr. Delaney during a lunch hour break. Mr. Piech likes to get his facts from the daily paper.

The Faculty is much more intent during the first half of that quickly-passing lunch period. Mr. Nolan needs this refreshment before facing section 36.

At no other time of the year is the spirit of Mendel more in evidence than during Homecoming Week. From the wearing of the blue and white derbies and buttons, through the drawing of the poster displays, the decorating of cars, the preparing of the bonfire, the fireworks, rally and hop of Friday evening, the gala gathering for the parade and the spectacle of the day itself, the almost-incidental gridiron meeting and the festivities of the victory dance—all contribute to making the Mendel Homecoming an event to be anticipated by freshmen, enjoyed thoroughly by the bulk of the student body, and treasured by alumni.

"Knights of the altar" is the term used in many parishes for Mass servers. Here at Mendel it is simply the Sanctuary Society, but the implications of that title are many. The hundreds of Masses offered in the Mendel Chapel by the priest faculty of the Monastery and the early morning risings on the part of a self-sacrificing few has made possible the efficient regulating of Mass schedules and a maximum of service to all who drop in to the Chapel for their morning visit or Mass.

To Fathers Brennan and Kuczynski is owed a debt of thanks, too often unexpressed, for their hours of faithful guidance, morning short talks after Mass and untiring efforts in the hearing of students' Confessions during lunch hours and every day after school.

Religion at Mendel

Choir loft view of a retreat conference in progress.

Thursday morning homeroom period scene—Senior Mass.

In these pages of the Monarch is treated the reason for a Mendel in the very reason for our existence. As "without a Good Friday, there is no Easter Sunday," so too without a Christian Catholic basis there is no significant education. The very breath of every human is taken for the glory of his Maker and to preserve man's life—only that he might turn that life and its service toward his own perfection and the fulfillment of his reason for being. What, then, is education at all, if it is not directed to the moral and spiritual well-being of each student, as well as only to the physical and mental? Religion at Mendel, therefore, must have a position of preeminence, since a success in any field of endeavor or even in one's life work is a mere relative success. It is dedicated to success in the Christian way of life, to the education of the whole man, the man of Mendel—the man of God!

School Life

A day at Mendel is a day of profit. Whether freshman or senior, school life cannot help but assist in molding a student. It is not only in the field of the intellectual that the boy who walks these halls is benefitted, but those of the spiritual and physical as well. It is, therefore, the whole man to which the facilities, curriculum and attention of Mendel are turned, for it is part of Augustinian tradition and custom that a boy who passes these portals shall leave them — totally trained, which can only be in mind, in soul and in body. This is the aim of Mendel—its results are the "Men of Mendel."

SERVICE

The Monarch

One's yearbook is destined to be a keepsake, almost a treasure, that long after letter sweater or trig book have crumbled away or been cast aside will still find its place on the shelves of our home, no matter where that may be. The Monarch of 1961 purports to serve that capacity and strives to fulfill that intent to the utmost. Much of the familiar "Blood, sweat and tears" of a hardy dozen staff members has been poured into these pages and it is with righteous pride that we hope the 1961 Monarch will serve as a life-long memorial of the happy days of high school at Mendel Catholic to each and every student, as its very conception and production will ever jog the memories of the staff that made it possible.

Five afternoons a week, on weekends, and even into the evening at home the printed word about the Mendel scene is being collected, scribbled and typed. Once a month the Mendelian is distributed to the student body, though many times during the preceding period we are made aware of the work involved by the "Mendelian staff meeting today . . . " announcements over the P.A. Staff members have a thankless job, yet one that so very well depicts the manliness that is entailed, and, to such a great extent, the service—to school, student body and self.

CATHOLIC LEAGUE PLAY-OFF

Mendel 22 — 22 St. George

After an early Autumn filled with anticipation, yet hesitancy over the slender chances of the Monarchs for 1960, the Mageemen invaded the den of the Leo Lions for the unveiling of an almost completely green team. Because Coach Magee's squad had been decimated by the loss of fourteen out of sixteen first-stringers from the year previous, there were few in the stands at Shewbridge Field who hoped for much more than a close game. It was just that for the first half, with the score favoring the Monarchs 8-0 on Bob Horvath's touchdown and Pete Andreotti's extra point. But in the second half the Roselanders began to show some of the class that was to carry them so far during the season. Andreotti scored twice more, and Mike Sheahan, Lou DiVirgilio and Jim Heintz all broke away into T-D land, bringing the score to 38-6, before a token score was granted to Leo against Coach Magee's untried sophs in the final minute of play.

In the second contest, against the "all-Hogan" St. Ignatius team, the Monarchs' 38 man squad all saw action, as Coach Magee continued to experiment with his younger players. St. Rita Stadium was the site of this home game for the Wolves, as six of the Blue and White players crossed the final stripe to tally.

Steve Szabo skirts end for big yardage in the play-off game tie that cost the Monarchs the city championship.

The high point of the season was undoubtedly reached in the following game against the future-city champions, Mount Carmel. Mendel drew first blood with a touchdown scamper by Pete Andreotti, followed by a two point bootleg by quarterback Tom McAuliffe, which eventually became the deciding score of the game. In the third quarter Steve Szabo swept left end for the score that put the Monarchs in the lead 14-0, but the toll of "heart football" began to tell in the final stanza, as the Caravan scored two quick tallies and then headed toward the clincher in the closing seconds. A pass in the last two seconds failed, leaving the 10,000 spectators limp from joy or frustration.

Now, I ask you, do things look good at this point? Expressions of Fr. Gavin and others reflect the situation.

Brilliant Monarch defense pilfers stray aerial and stifles Rice attack.

Needing a victory or tie to cop the South Section championship, the favored Monarchs invaded the corral of the St. Rita Mustangs. The swimming team might have had a better chance on that day of an all-morning rain, which saw the players of both sides totally undistinguishable after five minutes of play. Andreotti broke away for an 89 yard touchdown in the second quarter, which was countered by a St. Rita tally in the third quarter. Heads were carried high on both sides as the teams emerged from the Mud Bowl that afternoon, with the Monarchs' unbeaten string intact and the South Section crown in their then-muddy grasp.

In the first game of the city championship play-off, Mendel drew St. George, third place winner of the North Section. Playing an unusually listless first half, the Blue and White found themselves trailing 14-8 at the half. Yet, the spirit of both Mendel and Coach Joe Magee brought them roaring from the intermission to take advantage of a detected defensive Dragon weakness and score two quick tallies to grab the lead 22-14. It was only in the final seconds of the game that Fate, so kind hitherto in so many ways to the Mageemen, struck the death knell in the form of a 35-yard desperation pass for a score. In the subsequent melee, St. George pushed across a two-point extra pointer, tying the score, and thereby winning the play-off on the total number of first downs. For the Monarchs it was another game without a loss, at least in score, but it brought down the curtain in heartache and tears to a team never given a chance at the outset of the season, but one that refused to quit!

Hey, coach, you just told me to go out there and catch passes!

Season's Highlights

Although neither the Monarch senior nor junior team made the Catholic League play-off berths, some of the most exciting and spirited basketball in the city was seen in the Mendel gymnasium during the course of the season.

The seniors had a 6-6 record when league play began, then slumped to 4-6 in the league for a fourth place tie. Including out-of-league games, their overall record was 12 won and 12 lost.

The juniors, as ever, were the crowd pleasers, despite their poor record. Beating only DeLaSalle in league competition, the lights ended in last place and finished the season with a won 4, lost 13 record, but there was never a spectator who did not thrill game after game to their "never-say-die" spirit.

It was early in December when the Monarchs traveled to Detroit to take on their Augustinian confreres from mighty Austin Catholic of the Motor City. In the two years of this inter-city rivalry, the Mendelmen had been victors on both occasions. In 1958 they dumped the Michigan State Champs with a come-from-behind effort that dealt the Friars their first home-court loss in the history of the school. The following year Austin invaded Monarchland, only to lose again to a last-minute flurry of baskets, as Tom Stallings garnered 41 points.

The year 1960 was no different. Considerably behind at the end of each quarter, the visitors from Roseland sprinted past the home town Friars in the final seconds to win 55-52 and leave a flustered, though loyal crowd of local rooters limp. The Fr. John L. Seary Trophy thus came home to our corridors to remain — the result of the first three victories in the series.
